Ask: What are you thankful for this week?

Ask: What has stressed you out this week? What do you need for things to be better?

Ask: What are the needs of the people in your community?

Ask: How can we help each other with the needs we expressed?

Ask: What did we talk about last week?

Ask: Did you change anything in your life as a result of last week's story?

Ask: Did you get a chance to share the story with (the person identified)?

Ask: We identified several needs last week and planned to meet those needs. How did it go?

Say: Let's see what the Bible teaches us this week. Read this week's passage.

Ask for someone to retell the passage in their own words. Like they were telling a friend who wasn't there.

Ask the Group: Do you agree with their retelling? Is there something they added or left out that they shouldn't have? As long as the group doesn't miss a key component of the passage, continue. If they miss something, read the passage again. If someone states something that isn't in the passage, ask, "Where did you find (what they said) in this passage?" Reread the passage, if necessary.

Ask: What does this passage teach us about God?

Ask: What does this passage teach us about humanity?

Ask: If we believe this passage is from God, how must we change?

Ask: Who are you going to share this passage with before we meet again?
