The Laborers In The Vineyard

Matthew 20:1-16

Bob Johnson, NWCEA - Church Planter - The Bridge (Wilsonville, OR)

Is it possible that no matter when a man comes to Christ, he is equally dear to Him? Is it plausible that in the divine sense, life neither ends too soon or too late?

This morning, we have the chance to look at one of the greatest and most glorious of all parables...the parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard. Can it be...that God really turns the economy of life on it's head? Simply...Yep!

1) Character of God's Kingdom

- There is _____.

2) Character of the King

- He _____ for the laborer.

- He distributes an _____.

- He is _____ with _____.

3) Character of the King's Subjects
